Summary of reasons
for classification:

The publication entitled justso is classified as:
Objectionable.

The publication is classified as objectionable as it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes and the use of violence and coercion to compel persons to submit to sexual conduct.

The publication is a detailed and explicit step-by-step description of the sadomasochistic beating and rape of a child by her father. Small girls are presented as acceptable objects of adult sexual fantasies. A girl's reluctance and suffering are overcome by coercion and force to the point she becomes sex craving and submissive. By presenting sex with, and the beating and rape of, a child as mutually desirable, and a legitimate means of adult sexual arousal and gratification, the publication promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes and the use of violence and coercion to compel persons to submit to sexual conduct.

The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of the classification criteria. The classification interferes with the freedom of expression, but this is an outcome that reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to prevent the availability of publications that promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes and the use of violence and coercion to compel persons to submit to sexual conduct.
